

In any corner of the house, the maritime pine paneling brings comfort and durability, building an inimitable atmosphere. We offer a wide range of paneling in multiple finishes, able to meet the latest requirements in interior design. Our products are PEFC certified, from sustainably managed forests, based on the principles and criteria of conserving the great balance of forest ecosystems.

Product description

Length: 2000 mm
Width: 100 mm
Thickness: 10 mm
Essence: maritime pine
Nut & feder on all sides

Example of use

The maritime pine panel is an excellent insulator against noise, cold and heat, but especially the most modern deco idea of the moment. Can be used to cover walls, ceilings, under-roofs. And so, thanks to the many styles available, you can decorate a wide variety of interiors.

The great advantage of this paneling model is that it has Nut & Feder on all 4 sides.

The application of the NF logo on each parquet pallet, panel and / or baseboard guarantees that: the product is manufactured in accordance with the standards and regulations in force, the product is constantly checked by the manufacturer during its manufacture. The Certification Body shall periodically and unexpectedly carry out factory visits to verify the conformity of products marked with NF.